VOL. V. NO. 190.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

ESPIONAGE IN FORM.

The footing at Hawthorne yesterday, while not fast, was a decided improvement over that of Monday. Consequently the racing was much better. Favorites, however, fared badly and during the entire afternoon not a single decided first choice won. Cherry Leaf, at 2 to 1, was an equal favorite with Crocket in the third race and Mitten, at 11 to 5, was held at the same price that Lomond was in the fifth.

Espionage's mile and an eighth in 1:54 1/2 was the best performance of the day and shows that this filly is fit and good and back again to her two year-old form. There were only four starters in the Espionage race, but it was by far the liveliest batting contest of the day. Go To Bed closed favorite at 9 to 10, after being backed down from 8 to 5. Harry Nutter was heavily backed at 2 to 1 and better and Prince Blazes' price shrunk from 6 to 1 down to 5 to 1. Espionage was the outsider at 6 to 1.

The field got away at the first break all together and from appearances all of the boys had waiting orders. There was no fast early pace set. The quartette went the first three-quarters under restraint in 1:16 1/2, with Prince Blazes in front. Then the real racing began and the pace quickened. The seven furlongs was run in 1:29 and the mile in 1:41 1/2. It was then apparently anyone race but when the hard pressure came at the end Espionage was the only one that could stand it and she won as she pleased by a length and a half. The fight for the place between Harry Nutter and Go To Bed was a terrific one, the latter getting the verdict by a nose in the last stride.

Out of the five and one-half furlongs race for two-year-olds came a rattling good finish that clearly demonstrated the superiority of a strong boy like Knapp over lighter riders when it comes to a bruising drive. Knapp rode Florizar, who is a big loafing kind of a youngster and is inclined to suik. Shortly after reaching the stretch Florizar got to and passed the leader, Hansford, and for an instant it seemed that he was going to win easily; but suddenly he sulked and refused to try, and Hansford again went to the front. All that remained for Knapp to do was to give Florizar a good flogging, which he did, and although the youngster did not want to run Knapp succeeded in making him, and in a furious drive he managed to get up in time to win by a nose on the post. Had a small boy been riding Florizar he could not have won with him.

Cherry Leaf, back on his home grounds again, won the third race in grand style from Carnero. The race was at a mile and one-sixteenth, and a well-balanced field of five went to the post. Crocket led almost all the way, but when the stretch was reached she gave it up and Cherry Leaf, going to the front on call, won as he pleased. Carnero came from behind with a terrific rush through the last furlong and nipped Crocket by a head for second place. Deering finished fourth, two lengths back, Cherry Leaf was backed consistently at 2 to 1.

Mitten, in the fifth event, gave a fine example of good racing luck winning a race. Nutter rode the filly, and after being bumped and jostled down the backstretch she seemed to be hopelessly beaten on the far turn. Here, however, Nutter found an opening on the rail, and it being his only chance to win, he made a desperate effort to get through, which succeeded, but in the stretch it was a 100 to 1 chance that something would swerve to the inside and impede the filly. She had her good luck with her, however, and stealing up on the rail managed to win by a head from Azna. Had B. laud, who rode the latter, skinned the rail at the head of the stretch, he would have pinched Mitten off and could have won the race himself.

There was a bunch of seventeen common maidens in the first race and Emma Nora, at 15 to 1, proved the best. She went to the front early and after leading all the way won, eased up by three lengths. Deceive beat the favorite, Ramlet, a neck for second place.

The sport closed with a condition race for three year-olds at one mile, which La Josephine won easily by two lengths from Silver Tone.

The yearlings belonging to Applegate & McMeekin, which are to be sold at the Union Stock Yards next Saturday night, arrived at Hawthorne safe and sound yesterday. They are a fine-looking lot and should bring good prices.

W. C. Fessenden got in from the east yesterday with Peacemaker, Barataria and four others. "Wally" is as big and "sassy" as ever.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

George Siler's "Bulletin of Sports" is a publication of recent origin but it is making its way in public favor with a measure of rapidity that it richly deserves. It is a marvel of compact arrangement and decidedly superior to the longer established publications of similar character in the much greater amount of information it furnishes concerning the current sports of the day. Siler's little editorial column is a novel and entertaining feature. Presenting the entries of all the tracks where racing is in progress instead of the local track entries only is another feature of value. The supplement issued free weekly in connection with the Bulletin is alone worth the cost of subscription to the latter. It gives at a glance all that has happened during the week previous in racing, baseball, pugilism, yachting, athletics, tennis, cricket, billiards, cycling, athletics, golf, fly-casting, swimming—in short, every sporting event of any nature whatever.

In the advertising department of this issue of DAILY RACING FORM will be found the list of richly endowed stakes proffered the turfmen of the country by the Brooklyn Jockey Club. Secretary Hugh D. McIntyre is a past master of the art of framing racing conditions to meet the needs of all grades of horses and owners and no better devised stakes than those that come from his hand each year are presented for the consideration of owners and trainers. Entries to these stakes close August 15, and owners desiring to make entries can obtain entry blanks at this office. At no track in the east are western owners better cared for and entertained than at Brooklyn, and DAILY RACING FORM bespeaks for these stakes careful consideration and generous patronage from the turfmen of the west.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. T. C. McDowell refused an offer of $8,000 for his good colt Batten last week. In view of his fine form and the prices commanded at present by good class racers the colt is worth more money than the sum refused.

The application of T. M. Berry for an injunction against the St. Louis Fair Association and managers of the St. Louis Jockey Club, to restrain them from enforcing an order excluding him from the turf, has been denied by Judge Withrow.

A portion of S. S. Brown's string has arrived at the Newport track from the Brown farm in Kentucky. Henry Bundy is handling the stable, which will not likely race until Latonia opens in October.

E. C. Cincinnati, O.—Cheesemite was 3 to 5 to show.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The grandstand at the Monmouth Park racetrack has been sold to a firm for old iron. This stand was the largest and finest in the country in its day. It cost over $150,000. It was 970 feet long, 210 feet wide and 90 feet high. The laws forbidding racing in New Jersey rendered the stand of no more use, and it was falling into decay. The purchasers are Leonard & Co., of New York. The exact price paid is not made public, but it is said to be about one-twentieth of the original cost of the structure.

Before the running of the Grand Union Hotel Stakes at Saratoga Saturday Sam Hildreth, in behalf of Sydney Paget, offered John E. Madden $8,000 for his two-year-old colt Waring, which Madden agreed to accept. Later on, when Hildreth came around to complete the deal, Madden said he had concluded to retain the colt. Then he started him in the big stake and backed him stoutly to win it. Waring came in in the rear division, and on the surface it now appears that for once Madden has made a costly mistake in the matter of a horse trade.

A carload of J. B. Haggin's California bred fillies arrived at Lexington Friday from New York, and were sent to Elmendorf, where they will be put in the harem. They are by various sires. Along with them came the recently imported stallion Rapello, the five-year-old son of Ben d'Or and Napoli, by Marcoroni. He is to serve some of the Haggin mares at Elmendorf next season. Rapello is quite a handsome horse, but is said to have been of no great consequence
on the English turf, his greatest achievement being the winning of the Great Foal Stake at a mile and a quarter as a three-year-old.

Duke of Melbourne is a colt that has to be punched out all the way. He is inclined to be a loafer and will not do any more than he absolutely has to. He kept closer to his field yesterday than he has in his previous races. Southard's vigorous ride was doubtless responsible for the improvement of the colt in this respect. Duke of Melbourne is the Jim Gore colt that brewer Schorr paid $1,600 for as a yearling. Schorr has heretofore been exceedingly proud of the fact that he never let a good horse get away from him, but it looks as though he made a big mistake when he sold Duke of Melbourne to Mr Maffitt. Many well-posted horsemen pick the Duke to win the Chrysanthemum, in face of the fact that the great colt, The Conqueror, is here and may start in the stake.—St. Louis Republic.

owners, will be sold. These yearlings comprise some of the best from these representative Kentucky and Missouri breeders, and include brothers and sisters to many first-class turf performers. The list of relations is too long to enumerate here, but catalogues can be had by addressing Woodard & Shanklin, Lexington, Ky., under whose management the sale will be held.

JULY FORM BOOKS ARE READY.

The paper and leather covered volumes of Monthly Racing Form, containing all the charts from June 30 to July 31, inclusive, are ready for SALE OF OAKWOOD YEARLINGS.

Saturday, August 12, at Hawthorne paddock,

clude the get of Fonso, Lamplighter, Wadsworth, Victory, Prince Royal, Badge and Slei-pner. It is a well known fact that Oakwood Stud sends out no maidens, nearly all their matrons being famous producers, and it is better than even money that many winners will come from this bunch.

Winner—Ch. f, by Falconer—Emmeline.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily; it was a terrific drive for the place. Emma Nora broke well on her stride, was lucky to escape interference on the first turn and always held the race safe. She was eased up in the last sixteenth of a mile. Deceive got into an ugly jam and was badly interfered with. When straightened down the backstretch he made up a lot of ground and ran a good race. Ramlet weakened under pressure at the end. She seemed to be of little or no account. Prince C. did well. Our Friend ran out in the stretch. This is all that kept him out of the money. Brown Dick was short on speed. It was a bad lot.

Scratched—13354 Maryland Reserve, 102.
Overweights—Ramlet, 3½ pounds; Bernard M., 3; Deceive, 1.

Winner—B. c, by Florist—Czarina II.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth were doing their best. It was a peculiarly run race, as far as Florizor was concerned. He seems to be a colt of notions and sulked badly at the head of the stretch. After making the stretch turn he flashed by Hansford and for an instant was a full length in the lead. All of a sudden, however, the colt stopped as if shot. Knapp immediately started to work on him and by desperate riding managed to get him going again and finally got up in time to win. Knapp rode a powerful finish. Hansford took the short route and ran a good race. Dramburg was the best as the race was run. He was badly interfered with on the far turn, but finished like a good one. Alpha II. ran an improved race. Dr. Tarr works fast but will not run to his work.

Florizor, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Hansford, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Dramburg, show, out.

Winner—B. h, by Athelstan—Sunbeam.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; second and third driving hard. Cherry Leaf was the best and was well ridden. This horse is good and will be hard to beat from now on. Crowhurst placed him to perfection and made his run at the right time. Carnero finished with a tremendous rush. He beat Crocket for the place in the last few strides. The latter showed a lot of speed but quit badly after going a mile. Mud or a sloppy track is her forte. Deering's hard race at Harlem Saturday evidently took the heart out of him. At that he did not run a bad race. Dog Town can win in lower company.

Overweights—Crocket, 1½ pounds.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Sun Maid.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won cleverly. It was a fierce drive for the place. Espionage, under a clever ride, ran a grand race. Little Brown placed the filly intelligently down the backstretch and as there was no very fast pace the race was run precisely to suit her. When the stretch was reached Espionage shot to the front like a flash. This filly is of good class and is in good form now. Go To Bed was a false alarm. He ran a fair race but that was all. Harry Nutter lost ground on the stretch turn but finished strongly. There was no fast early pace and that accounts for Prince Blazes being in front during the first part of the journey.

Espionage, place, 8 to 5. Go To Bed, place, out. Harry Nutter, show, out.

Winner—B. f, by King Eric—Tara Blackburn.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second, third and fourth driving as hard. Mitten's win was a lucky one. She got all tangled up down the backstretch and at the half-mile post did not seem to have a chance. Nutt, however, skinned the rails on the stretch turn, and, taking a desperate chance, he luckily got through. The filly barely got up in time. Had Bol-nd pulled to the inside at the head of the stretch, Mitten could not have gotten through and Azua would have won. Lomond had no excuses. Caviar lost considerable ground on the stretch turn. Hazel had bad racing luck.

Scratched—13843 Microscope, 103; 13769 Belle of the Glen, 102; 13769 Crystal Dome, 100.
Overweights—Donna Anita, 1 pound; Hazel, 1½; Ravenswood, 1½.

Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third cleverly. La Josephine had an easy time of it. She came away on call in the stretch. Silver Tone dislikes a route. He quit badly when the pinch came. Aureole made up much ground steadily throughout and finished stoutly. The Lady in Blue showed some speed down the backstretch but quit when the pressure came at the end. Latch Key ran about three-eighths of a mile and then stopped to a walk. His race would hardly do. Neither would Lime Water's. The latter was in his own way.

Gates and Tartarian had shot their bolts. Clarando got off none too well but had no chance to beat the winner. Lula W. was pinched out at the half mile post. W. B. Gates was hardly ready. Tartarian is only a relic. Hungry Hill could not run well in the going.
